

The Olmsted Conference.

At The National Building Museum

October 27, 2021

Beginning on American History TV, C-SPAN, aired a conference on the 200th anniversary of the birth of Frederick Law Olmsted, founder of American landscape architecture. The video presents Laurie Olin discussing FLO's influence on the landscapes of college campuses across the country including Stanford. Landscape architect Mark Hough discussed Olmsted's work on the Duke University Campus. The conference was held at the National Building Museum on October 27, 2021.

PART OF FREDERICK LAW OLMSTED & LANDSCAPE DESIGN

Introduction by Dede Petri, President and CEO, National Association of Olmsted Parks.

Frederick Law Olmsted and College Campus Design.

Landscape architect Laurie Olin talks about Frederick Law Olmsted, the founder of American landscape architecture, and his impact on the design of college campuses. This program was part of a conference to mark the 200th anniversary of Frederick Law Olmsted's birth, co-hosted by the National Association for Olmsted Parks and Olmsted 200.

VIDEO LINK [44:47]: <https://www.c-span.org/video/?515643-2/frederick-law-olmsted-college-campus-design&event=515643&playEvent>

Olmsted Brothers Legacy at Duke University.

Duke University landscape architect Mark Hough talked about the history of Duke University's campus and the design legacy of brothers John Hull and John Charles Olmsted. This program was part of a conference to mark the 200th anniversary of Frederick Law Olmsted's birth, co-hosted by the National Association for Olmsted Parks and Olmsted 200.

VIDEO LINK [57:39]: <https://www.c-span.org/video/?515643-5/olmsted-brothers-legacy-duke-university>